

Speaking with More Power, Tact, and Skill

With Dan O'Connor

Learning Objectives

- Identify and purge the words and phrases you are using that sabotage your communication success using a danger & power phrase list.
- Choose the right verbal patterns to articulate what you're thinking so that more people listen to—and respect—your message.
- Use the correct learning tools in a way that causes an immediate transformation in the way you communicate, and how to easily teach others to do the same.

Step 1

Develop and use a Danger Phrase
and Power Phrase List!

Your Danger Phrase & Power Phrase List

Danger Phrase	Power Phrase
I'm sorry	I apologize
Idea	Answer/solution/ proposal
I need/you need	Place the real subject first!
Do you need/want...	Would you like...
Unfair	Unequal

Scripting Is Like Dancing

That's interesting why would you say that?

Scripting Is Like Dancing

That's interesting why would you ask that?

Scripting Is Like Dancing

That's interesting why would you do that?

Clarify Your Message

Clarify Your Message

Feel

Felt

Found

Effectively Respond to Objections

I'd like to be helpful...

However, I'm afraid...

So I'm wondering...

Engage all of Your Learning Styles

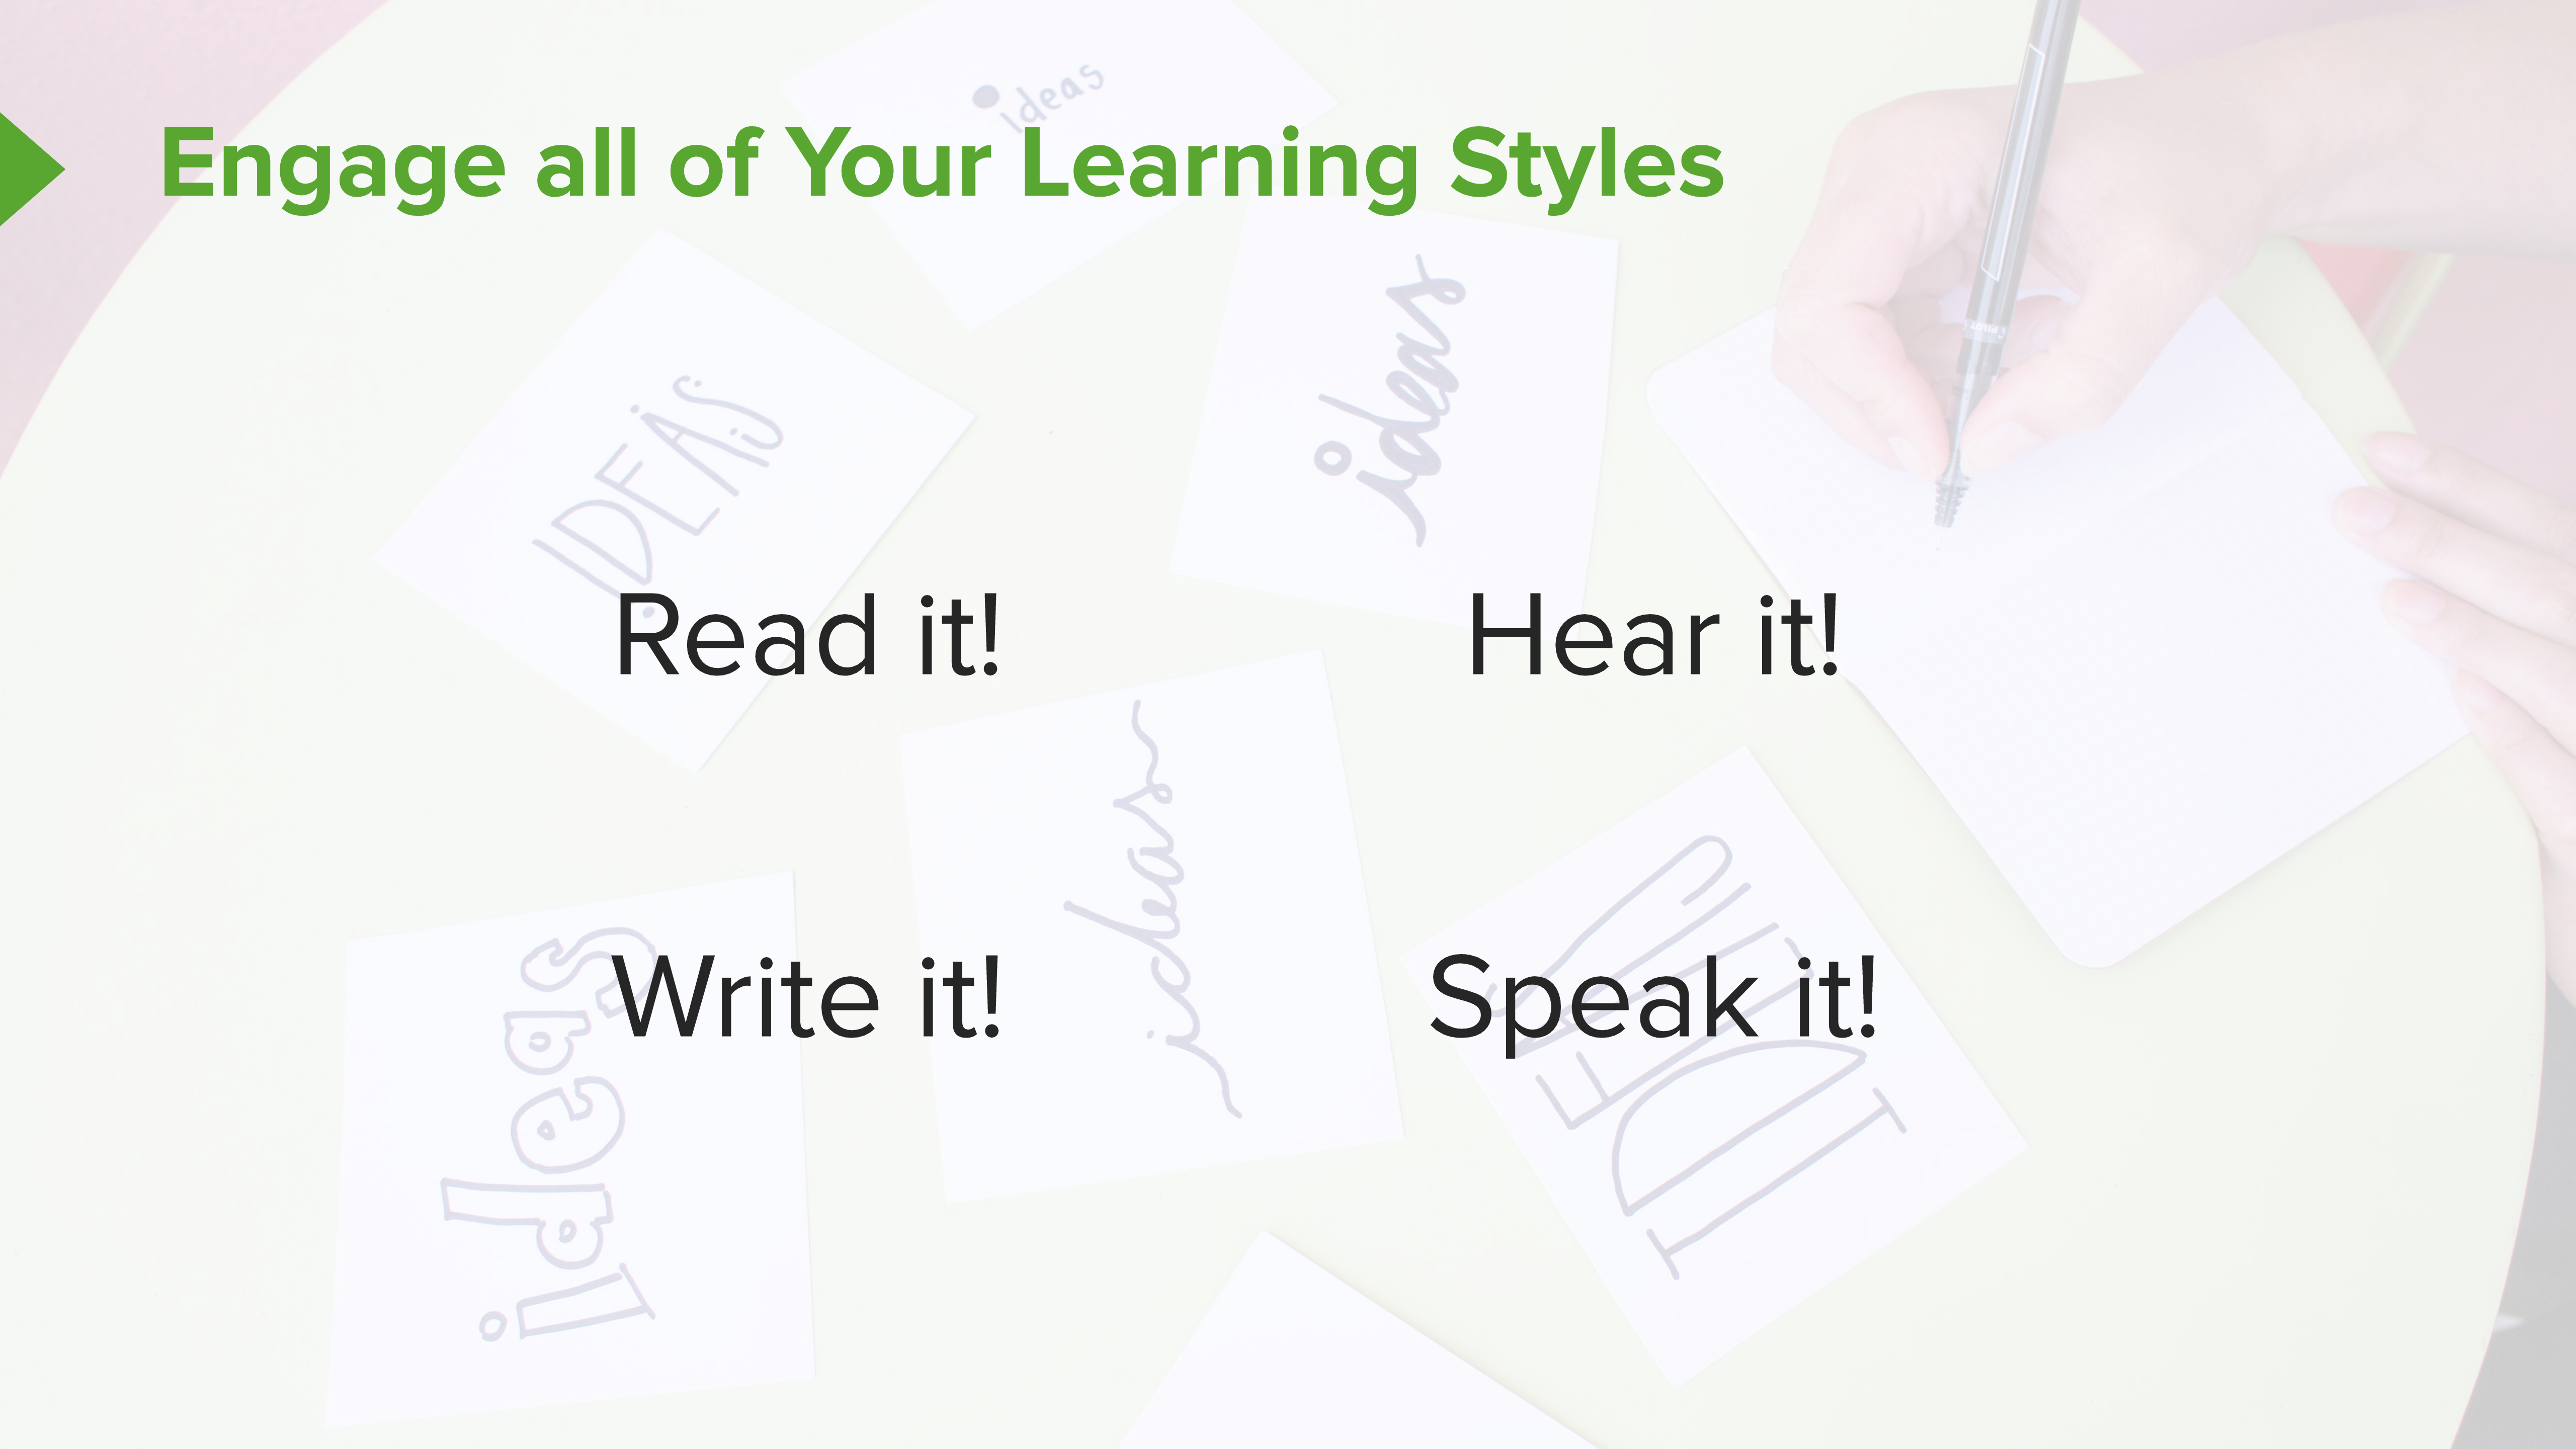

Engage all of Your Learning Styles

Read it!

Hear it!

Write it!

Speak it!

Quick-Reference Flash-Cards

Read it!

Assessments and Lists

Write it!

Practice in No-risk Situations

Hear it!

Practice in No-risk Situations

Speak it!

Learning Outcomes

- ✓ Identify and purge the words and phrases you are using that sabotage your communication success using a danger & power phrase list.
- ✓ Choose the right verbal patterns to articulate what you're thinking so that more people listen to—and respect—your message.
- ✓ Use the correct learning tools in a way that causes an immediate transformation in the way you communicate, and how to easily teach others to do the same.

